

AusPayNet Register of MICR Printing Systems

September 2017

IMPORTANT DISCLAIMER

The information contained in this register has been compiled in good faith from the information provided by third parties. No representation or warranty is made by APCA as to the truth or accuracy of the information and APCA, its officers, employees and agents expressly disclaim all and any liability in respect of the information.

The register is maintained by APCA and only lists MICR printing systems that has been submitted to APCA for testing and found at the time of testing to have met the requirements set out in Appendix 3 of APCA Publication 3.3 "MICR Magnetic Ink Character Recognition". Users should note that manufacturers may change the specifications of their MICR Printing Systems from time to time.

Accreditation of a MICR printing system (recorded in this Register of MICR Printing Systems) means that it is capable of producing acceptable MICR encoding. APCA does not guarantee that the MICR Printing System included in this Register will produce acceptable results. Accreditation is subject to on-going evaluation. Accreditation is valid from the day on which it was recorded in this Register of MICR Printing Systems until it is either temporarily or permanently withdrawn from the Register.

APCA has not mandated the use of printing systems recorded in the Register of MICR Printing Systems. Non-accredited printing systems may be used to satisfy the requirements set out in APCA Publication 3.3 or any replacements thereof.
